Agency response

The City of Crestwood is not a self-contained community but is part of a larger geographic region that contains the entire population of St. Louis County and that of St. Louis City. The City of Crestwood contains a major State Highway that is lined with businesses, eating establishments, grocery stores and Crestwood Plaza shopping center, a regional draw shopping center. The mall is also served by three different bus lines on the Metro system. The City of Crestwood also contains a portion of I-44. All of these influence the demographics of the driving public that we deal with.

While Crestwood has a Black population of 0.86 %, St. Louis County, in 2007, had a Black population of 21.8% and the State of Missouri has a Black population of 10.7%. To judge Crestwood's stop data based on our population provides for an inaccurate reflection of the driving public that our officers deal with. Crestwood's Black population does not reflect our region and our driving public.
