

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT:

Approval of instruments changing name of the Trans-Mississippi Life Insurance Company to National Security Life Insurance Company.

February 23, 1938.

2-23

Honorable George A. S. Robertson
Superintendent of Insurance
Jefferson City, Missouri

Attention: Mr. J. F. Allebach
Deputy Superintendent

Dear Sir:

In compliance with your request of February 9, 1938, we are herewith returning, with our approval, instruments attached to your letter of request changing the name of the Trans-Mississippi Life Insurance Company to the National Security Life Insurance Company.

We approve all of the papers submitted in connection with the change of name and find that the corporation has complied with the statutes of Missouri in connection with the change of name of said corporation, and same has our approval.

Very truly yours

COVELL R. HEWITT
Assistant Attorney-General
