

INSURANCE: Articles of the Association of the Group Casualty Underwriters, Inc., a Mutual Company.

August 21, 1946

Mr. Owen Jackson
Superintendent of Insurance
Jefferson City, Missouri

Dear Mr. Jackson:

This will acknowledge the transmission of certified copies of the declaration on the part of the incorporators to organize a corporation for the purpose of transacting the business of insurance under the mutual plan and the corporation to be named, "Group Casualty Underwriters, Inc., a Mutual Company." This corporation is being organized under Article VII, Chapter 37, R.S. Mo., 1939. There is also transmitted a certified copy of the Articles of Association by the proposed company and the affidavit of the publication of the notice required by the statutes of this State, a copy of such notice as published being attached to and made a part of said affidavit. The opinion of this department is requested as to the compliance of such proceedings with the law.

We have examined the certified copies of these documents and proceedings. It is the opinion, therefore, of this department that such proceedings and documents comply with the laws of the State of Missouri and that such proceedings and documents are not inconsistent with the Constitution of the State of Missouri or the Constitution of the United States.

Respectfully submitted,

George W. Crowley
GEORGE W. CROWLEY
