

February 15, 1940

Honorable Ray B. Lucas
Superintendent
Department of Insurance
Jefferson City, Missouri

ATTENTION: Mr. Charles J. Harvey
Assistant Counsel

Dear Sir:

We have received your letter of January 15, in which you inclose copies of amendments to the Articles of Association of the Missouri Casualty Company, a mutual company. We assume that this company operates under the provisions of Article VII, Chapter 37, R. S. Mo. 1929.

We have examined the said amendments and we are of the opinion that the same are in accordance with the provisions of Article VII, Chapter 37, R. S. Mo. 1929, and are not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the State of Missouri and of the United States.

Very truly yours,

J. F. ALLEBACH
Assistant Attorney General

APPROVED:

W. J. BURKE
(Acting) Attorney General
