800-392-8222

The Attorney General is charged with enforcing the Missouri Sunshine Law. To ensure that government is open, the Attorney General reviews complaints regarding potential Sunshine Law violations and, in certain cases, takes legal action. However, please understand that the Attorney General cannot act as your attorney but represents the state's interests in ensuring that public meetings and records are open to the extent provided by law.

If you would like to file a sunshine law violation complaint, please complete and mail this form to:
Missouri Attorney General's Office • Sunshine Complaint Unit • P.O. Box 899 • Jefferson City, MO 65102
